

Information about the article 13 of Italian Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 (Privacy Code), Italian Legislative Decree no. 56/2004 (Money Laundering Regulations).

Dear Customer, pursuant to art. 13 of Italian Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, and in relation to the personal data of which the law firm as an epigraph comes into possession with custody of your case, inform you of the following:

1. Purposes of the data processing. The treatment is intended only to the correct and complete execution of the professional assignment received, both in the professional field, both in the judicial and extrajudicial field.
2. Methods of data processing. a) The treatment is carried out by means of transactions or series of transactions listed in Art. 4 paragraph 1 letter "a" of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003: collection, recording, organization, storage, consultation, processing, modification, selection, extraction, comparison, use, interconnection, blocking, communication, cancellation and destruction of data. b) Operations may be conducted with or without the aid of electronic or automated means. c) The treatment is done by the owner and / or by the processor.
3. Provision of data. The provision of personal common, sensitive and judicial data is necessary for carrying out the activities referred to in paragraph 1.
4. Refusal to provide data. Possible refusal by the individual to give personal information in the case referred to in paragraph 3 makes it impossible to perform the activities referred to in paragraph 1.
5. Reporting of data. Personal data may be disclosed to those responsible for treatment and may be communicated for the purposes of paragraph 1 to contractors, stakeholders in the justice sector, counterparties and their defenders, to arbitration and, in general, to all those public and private entities such disclosure is necessary for the proper fulfillment of the purposes mentioned in paragraph 1.
6. Disclosure of the data. Personal data will not be disseminated.
7. Transfert of data abroad. Personal data may be transferred to Countries within the European Union and to Countries outside the European Union for the purposes referred to in point 1.
8. Rights of the concerned person. Article 7 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 gives to the concerned person the exercise of certain rights, including the right to obtain, from the confirmation of the existence of his own personal data and of their provision in an intelligible form; the right to know the origin of the data, the purposes and methods of processing, of the logic applied to the processing, the identity of the holder and the people whose data can be communicated; the concerned person has the right to obtain the updating, rectification and integration of data, deletion, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of the data processed in violation of the law; the holder has the right to oppose, on legitimate reasons, to the processing of data.
9. Data Controller. Data processor is the lawyer Cristina Przybylak with office in Pesaro (Italy), Via Cimarosa, 54. This information is compiled and reported also in accordance with local regulations regarding money laundering, being the professional subject to the requirements for the identification, recording and reporting of Italian Legislative Decree no. 56/2004.

For receipt of the notices and for consenting to the processing of all my / our personal, common, sensitive and judicial data.